The amendment received 3 August 2007 has been made of record. Claims 1, 4, 6, 7, 9, 10, 14-17 and 20 are pending.

The rejection under 35 USC 112 contained in paragraph 4 of the previous office action is withdrawn in view of applicants' amendments.

Claims 1, 4, 6, 7, 9, 10, 14-17 and 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. This rejection is maintained for reasons of record as applied to the limitation to component (c). It is the position of the examiner that the specification as originally filed fails to provide sufficient support for the use of the two claimed species in any amounts other than those actually delineated in the examples. That is, while there may be support for 5-7% of one and 10% of the other, there is no support for 5-10% for each species.

Claims 1, 4, 6, 7, 9, 10, 14-17 and 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Jones et al in view of Kamada et al.

Claims 1, 4, 6, 7, 9, 10, 14-17 and 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Jones et al in view of Kamada et al, Patel et al and Fujisawa et al

Each of these rejections is maintained for reasons of record. Applicants' arguments appear to focus on the fact that the Jones et al reference is drawn to inks while the Kamada et al reference is drawn to electrostatic toners and, therefore, non-analogous art. This argument is not persuasive since the Jones et al reference explicitly teaches that the inks of their invention are to utilize toner particles normally found in electrostatic image compositions. Thus one of ordinary skill in the art would be led to the teachings of art directed to electrostatic toner compositions.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
